

On the Glacier - Answers

1. Who did Amber, Rory and Coco wave goodbye to?

Amber, Rory and Coco waved goodbye to their friends.

2. What are the youngsters in this story doing?

The youngsters are making their way up the glacier.

3. How did their legs feel? Why do you think they felt like this?

Their legs felt like jelly because they had climbed so high.

4. Why was the ice dangerous?

The ice is dangerous because it is bumpy and slippery and they might fall into a crevasse.

5. How did they cross the deep crevasse?

They crossed the crevasse by walking across a metal ladder.

6. What did the camp cook have ready for them?

The camp cook had hot chocolate waiting for them.

7. How long did it take them to get to the camp?

It took three hours of climbing before they got to camp.

8. Find two phrases that remind us that the glacier is not a space place.

- 'It was hard work because the ice was bumpy and slippery.'
- 'The youngsters knew the glacier was dangerous.'