

①

Writing LO:

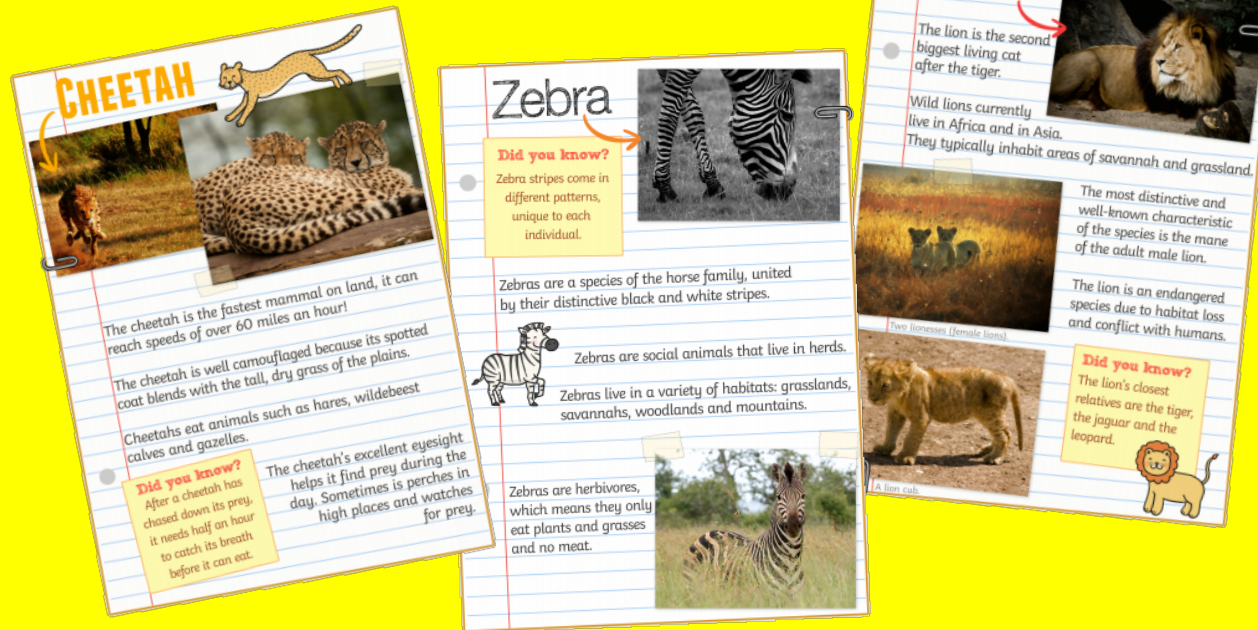

To use different sentence types

1 LO: To use different sentence types

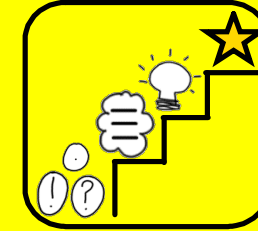

This week you are going to be using your planning sheet to create your own fact file on an African animal!

As part of your writing, you are going to use different sentence types. Can you remember any different types of sentence? let's recap on the next few pages . . .

① LO: To use different sentence types

1

Statements

Statements are sentences which tell you a fact, opinion or idea.

Example:
A rainbow has 7 colours.
They are beautiful to look at.

Can you think of any others?

Statement examples:

I have a dog and a cat.

On Mondays after school Tom goes to the park.

1

LO: To use different sentence types

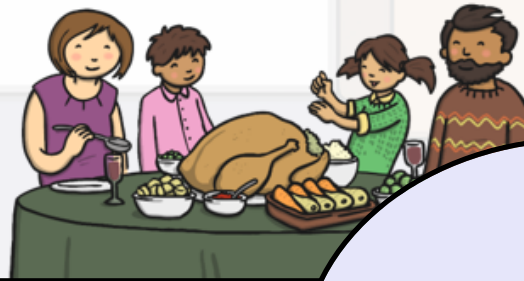

2

Questions

Questions are sentences that ask you something.
They usually end with a question mark.

Example:

What did you have for dinner?

Can you think of
any others?

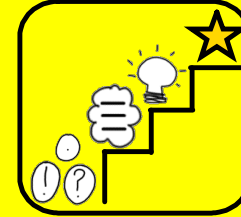

Question examples:

What time is lunch?

Did somebody help you draw that picture?

1

LO: To use different sentence types

3

Commands

They are often urgent or angry, can be very short and contain an imperative verb. Commands Imperative verbs are also known as 'bossy verbs' - they tell people what to do.

Example:
Help me! Stop it.

The verb (doing word) is at the beginning of a command sentence.

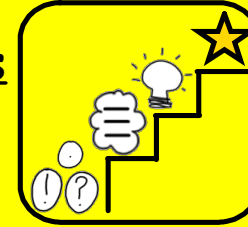

Command examples:

Go to your room.

Shut the door.

Can you think of
any others?

1 LO: To use different sentence types

4

Exclamations

An exclamation is used when someone is surprised.
It always starts with 'How' or 'What' and contains a noun and a verb.

Example:
What big feet you have!

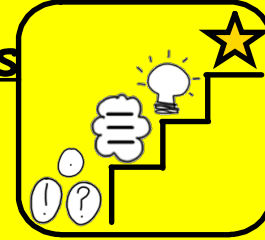

Exclamation examples:

How lovely to see you!

What a beautiful day it is today!

Can you think of
any others?

① LO: To use different sentence types

?

?

?

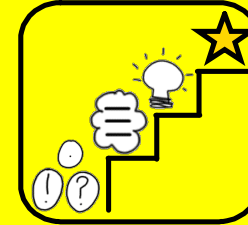

What is a non-fiction text?
What is the difference between fiction and non-fiction?

?

?

?

1 LO: To use different sentence types

Fiction books are made-up stories from the writer's imagination.

Non-fiction books
provide us with facts and information.

1 LO: To use different sentence types

These are all non-fiction . . .

Newspaper

Letter

Leaflet

Magazine

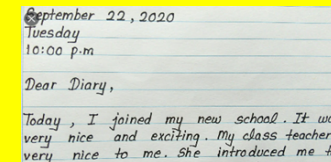

Fact book

Instructions Manual

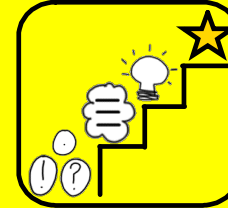

Diary

. . . there are many more!

1

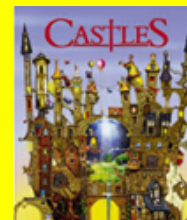

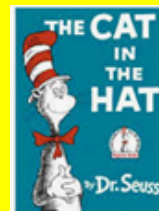

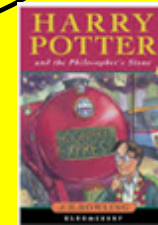

LO: To use different sentence types

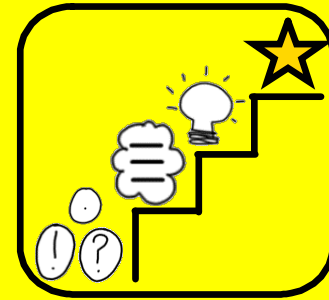

Have a go at sorting these books into Fiction and Non-fiction (fact)

Fiction

Non - Fiction

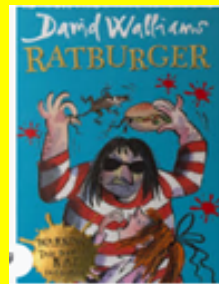

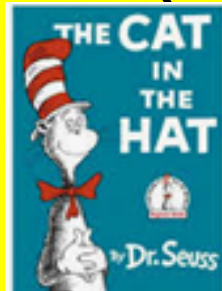

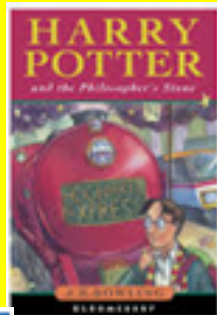

1 LO: To use different sentence types

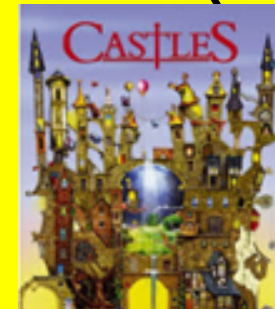

Have a go at sorting these books into Fiction and Non-fiction (fact)

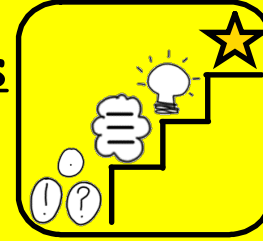

Fiction

Non - Fiction

1 LO: To use different sentence types

Let's recap fact files . . .

- A fact file is type of non-fiction.
- A fact file or fact sheet gives information about something in a clear and concise (simple) way.
- There is sometimes bullet points to give the main facts.
- Usually information is split into subheadings.
- There are often pictures or diagrams to help explain information.

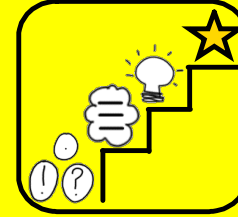

Image /
Photo

Subheadings

Paragraph

1 LO: To use different sentence types

Fact files often have subheadings written as questions.
Look at your planning sheet.

On a scrap piece of paper, write out your subheadings for each section as questions

African Elephants

Appearance Elephants have a huge trunk, long curved tusks and massive ears.	Habitat African elephants live in the savannah, where they can find trees for eating.
Food Elephants are herbivores, this means they only eat plants but not meat.	Did you know? Elephants flap their ears to show anger or happiness.

Photo

Don't forget to keep it safe for writing your fact file on Wednesday!

e.g. 'Appearance' could be written as:
What does an African Elephant look like?

1 LO: To use different sentence types

Plenary talk placemat

Today I have learnt that.....

I have found out several things on the topic of....
Firstly I found out that.....
Furthermore, I

Before this lesson I could already.....

Discuss with a partner before you share it with the class.

The most important thing I learned today is.....

One thing I need to remember from today's lesson

Today I have tried to.....

I did not know how to....
.....but now I can...

I was successful when I.....